

Waste Management

All hazardous and non-hazardous waste produced in the dental practice is dealt with under the guidelines of the following agencies:

- The Department of Health HTM01-05
- The Health and Safety Executive
- The Environment Agency

We work with a company called Initial Medical (www.initial.co.uk) and review our waste management control measures regularly to ensure that the current standards are achieved.